Spectacular New Photo Shoot

It's Raining Champagne!

The time has come for the unveiling of the Wedding Yurts' spring photo shoot, styled by none other than the founder of Wedding Yurts, Lizzie Jones. The shoot was held on the 3rd of May at the beautiful lakeside venue, Maisemore Court, in Gloucestershire. Inspired by 1920s and 30s British vintage glamour, Lizzie and her team set the scene for this awe-inspiring visual showcase.

Lizzie primarily collaborated with Helena Rose, a skilled aerial artiste, highly trained in her art, who was suspended within an aerial hoop rigged from the centre of our 32ft yurt. Helena Rose offers herself as a performer for an unique specialist service named 'Champagne Rain', the latest trend in aerial bar tending. Words cannot describe how aesthetically beautiful this is, but the photos herein display the splendid nature of the art.

Whilst performing inside the suspended hoop, Helena Rose modelled especially chosen vintage inspired gowns and exquisite adornments, all by The State of Grace. We are so excited to have worked with London's only bespoke head-to-toe design, styling and beauty house, founded by designer and stylist, Lucia Silver. Lucia designs all the dresses, jewellery, head adornments and accessories using a hugely skilled UK creative team. All this is available to brides by appointment at their Notting Hill showroom.

The scenes were captured by the talented British photographer, Louise Holgate, who specialises in creating natural, beautiful and dramatic images that tell stories. Louise's artistry in her field is outstanding. She loves vintage style and using lighting creatively, and combined these passions and skills to produce some breathtaking images.

Additionally, the shoot celebrated the long awaited spring. Using seasonal British flowers sourced by Lizzie from local growers, Lizzie designed the concept for the heavenly floral installation full of enchantingly placed cherry blossoms, which flawlessly framed Helena Rose's performance. Saffron Dodds-Smith of Bath Flowers really showed her remarkable florally artistic and architectural expertise when she created and installed the piece, skilfully weaving Lizzie's design into reality.

Emma Hibbs is a Bristol based hair stylist who is passionate about wedding hair and all things vintage. Emma created immaculate 1920s and 30s hair styles, which entirely complimented Lucia's vintage inspired, elaborate head-pieces. Also, Katy Elizabeth, a superb make-up artist with a background in fine art created two stunning, contrasting looks; one for the day and one for the night scene. This trio of experts worked together to create a stunning and thoroughly harmonious feast for the eyes; a dream collaboration.

Without the contribution of all the people involved in this shoot, as with all Wedding Yurts events, successfully making wedding day dreams come true would not be possible. Lizzie loves to bring people together to create something amazing for her happy couples, and Wedding Yurts is blessed to have the pleasure of working with many wonderful British craftspeople that do everything from building yurts to baking cakes, and they do so with skill, style and grace that are second to none.

Lizzie and Jim really want to inspire all those who are looking for something that absolutely has the 'Wow' factor, and who wish to support and nurture the exceptional talent and skills of British artisans and suppliers. This is the dream that Lizzie made into a reality in this photo shoot, as she does with every wedding she helps to create.
